Lexington, VA

The Department of Theatre, Dance & Film Studies at W&L is committed to including, supporting, and uplifting the voices of students of color and other URM groups on our campus, especially in terms of our productions. As part of this, we look to the stories we tell on our stages and the artists leading our productions.

We are looking to hire an artist who is willing to be the primary artistic visionary / artistic director for our winter term dance concert & teach dance company class. Contract is Jan 9th through April 3rd. Stipend, housing & travel included. If you are interested, please send an email with resume and links to choreographic/curated dance work to daviesj@wlu.edu.
